WHAT TO BRING

- Photo identification (for you and your spouse, if filing jointly)
- Social Security card or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) for yourself, your spouse and each person to be claimed on your return
- Birthdates for every person on the return
- W-2 forms for all jobs held in 2014
- All 1099 forms, including income received from unemployment (1099-G), social security (1099-SSA), pension payments (1099-R), bank account interest (1099-INT), and dividends (1099-DIV)
- Form 1095 with health insurance information and/or health insurance exemption certificate
- A list of who on your tax return had health insurance for 2014 and for which months they were covered
- Record of tuition payments (1098-T), student loan interest paid (1098-E), plus receipts for postsecondary materials and books
- If you paid for childcare – total expenses and name, address, and tax ID number of provider(s)
- Mortgage interest statement and property tax receipts if you own a home
- Local tax forms or any tax booklets you've received in the mail
- Anything that says "This is important for your taxes"
- A copy of last year's tax return (not necessary, but helpful)
- A 2014 pay stub from each job if available (not required)
- If you're Married Filing Jointly, you'll need to bring your spouse to sign your tax documents
- Your checkbook to see the routing and account number for direct deposit. This will help you get your refund faster! You can also let us know if you would like to open a PNC debit card for your tax refund, which would arrive in 5-7 days

You may qualify if your 2014 total household income was up to $40,000 or up to $20,000 if filing as an individual.
